

Play Money

Children may pretend to shop for groceries, pay for food at a restaurant, or play store. Make several copies for children to color. Help them cut out the play money and use it for their dramatic-play activities. The possibilities are endless!

